ORDER:

In the final report 1st read above, the Director General, Anti Corruption Bureau recommended to place Sri N.Narasimha, while working as Attender attached to Sri J.Uma Mahewara Rao, Inspector (now retired) O/o. District Inspector, Legal Metrology, Weights & Measures Circle –II, Gaddiannaram, Hyderabad (C.O. in TEC. No.59/2002) of their defense before the Tribunal for Disciplinary Proceedings on the charges found in possession of un-accounted excess cash of Rs.131/- (Rupees one hundred thirty one only) during the surprise check conducted by the ACB officials on 24.3.95 which are established beyond any reasonable doubt for habitually collecting bribe amounts from the Auto Drivers and they are having Rs.131/- cash over and above the Government Personal Cash Register.

2. In the reference 2nd read above the Tribunal for Disciplinary Proceedings Hyderabad in its report dt. 06.06.2007 have stated that the evidence of both these witnesses does not clinchingly say that the amount of Rs.131/- found in possession of C.O. was excess cash and that was collected from any of the auto drivers as bribe. In the absence of any such evidence possession of Rs.131/- by C.O. is not an offence or misconduct as alleged against him in the charge. The categorical statement of C.O. at the time of surprise check was that he got Rs.131/- as his personal cash, but not excess amount. Taking into consideration all these aspects, The Tribunal for Disciplinary Proceedings holds that the charge framed against Sri N.Narasimha, Attender is not proved by prosecution and therefore he has to be exonerated from the charge totally and recommended for total exonerated from the charge.

3. Government after careful examination of the matter accept the recommendation of the Tribunal For Disciplinary Proceedings and hereby order to abate action against Sri N.Narasimha, Attender, O/o. District Inspector, Legal Metrology, Weights & Measures Circle –II, Gaddiannaram, Hyderabad as the said incumbent was expired on 14.09.2007.

4. The Controller of Legal Metrology, Hyderabad shall take necessary further action accordingly.
